A WHOOP FOR JAMES ANANIAS. Lake County Honors its Great Pat-ent Lawyer.

In common with every other town and city in the United States, Painesville watched with feverish interest for every word of news that came from Chicago concerning the Presidential Convention. The bulletin board in front of the postoffice was constantly surrounded by a crowd of eager men and speculations as to the result were rife on every hand But even those who were watching the ballottings most carefully were unpre pared for the sudden bolt among the anti-Grant delegates that resulted in the nomination of James Ananias Garneld as the Republican candidate for the office of President of the United States, And even when the news had been posted before their eyes it was some moments be-fore those reading it came to a full realiza-tion of what it really meant. So soon, nowever, as the fact was fairly brought home to the consciousness of the assem-bled stalwarts, the dance began. The veteran editor, our crudite and esteemed cotemporary, rushed out and as fast as his eagerness would allow, began to string a flag with a dilapidated looking eagle upon it, across Main street—Lee, and Branch, and Harvey and all the other loval natriots along the street shock er loyal patriots along the street shook hands and wept great tears of joy and thankfulness—Kilbourne began to draw up a petition to raise money to pay for powder—an unknown enthusiast rang the op a petition to raise money to pay for powder—an unknown enthusiast rang the fire-bell and called the "firemen out only to have them sent back again—Van Etten started on a begging expedition for boxes and barrels for a boafire—G. In the evening a procession was formed to visit the dwelling place of James Ananias, in Mentor, and congratulated Mrs. James Ananias on the great honor done her spouse. Avery with his Tally Ho Coach, filled with the Mayor the Council and numerous distinguished citizens led the line and following this came the Band and half a hundred conference a private at the house thefer dred carriages. Arrived at the house thefe was music, a wouderful speech by Mayor Burrows in which he spoke of the man as Burrows in which he spoke of the man as the "greatest statesman of the age" whom four years since he denounced as a "sad and blackened monument of avarice and greed," a response from Dr. Robinson in which he lachrymosed over the boyhood of "Onio's favorite son," more music, another spread eagle piece of oratory from Representative Clement, a trombone solo, remarks from the prospective minister to the Sandwich Islands, cheers, cold water, a pinning on of badges by a female adherent of Ohio's favorite son, dust, talk and an adjournment. Just before the latter event a delegation of torches and brass horns came from Willoughby and by their arrival enthused great enthusiasm into the enthusiastic enthusiasts assembled.

the enthusiastic enthusiasts assembled.
Altogether Lake County may be considered as having very properly responded to the needs of the occasion. E. W. VanEtten is out of employment eince there are no more bulletins from Chicago to be carried across the street.

An ordinance prehibits the ringing of the Engine House bell except in case of a fire. Who is responsible for the alarm which was rung when the news of James Ananias' nomination was received? And will the town be compelled to pay the firemen for assembling at a false signal given by enthusiastic Republicans?

There was a marked contrast between the congratulatory speech made by Mayor There was a marked contrast between the congratulatory speech made by Mayor J. B. Burrows, on Tuesday evening, at Mrs. Garfield's house, and some others made by him four years ago. Garfield must have improved wonderfully of late. Doc. Robinson's speech was touching and pathetic.
